Re: United States v. Daniel Chugunov
06 CR 1017

Dear Judge Berman:

I am writing to request an adjournment of this case, now on Your Honor's calendar for Monday, March 9. With certainty I will still be on trial in the Eastern District, before Judge Gleeson, that day.

The instant matter is an alleged violation of Supervised Release. The Probation Officer has been advised that this request was going to be made and she requests any date convenient to the Court in April, but she would especially appreciate it were the case set for April 7, shortly before or after 12:45, as she has another matter before Your Honor at that day and time. April 7 is an excellent day for me as well.

I have not yet heard from the government; the assigned assistant is on leave. When her substitute contacts me, if there is any objection to this application, I will immediately notify chambers.

Respectfully yours,
